OSU YOUTH PROGRAM REGISTRY
Registration Form Preview

Per University Policy 07-040 (Safety of Minors), registration is required for all university-operated and university hosted (third party led) youth programs. Registration must be completed and submitted through the registry's online interface at youth.oregonstate.edu prior to the proposed session or start date. This document outlines the information needed to successfully complete the online form.

Screening Questions
These questions guide users to the appropriate form based on the type of youth program being registered.

1. Does the activity involve at least one minor (under age 18) who is unaccompanied by their parent/guardian? ➤ If Yes, then proceed with registration. ➤ If No, then registration is not required.
2. Will the activity engage any OSU employee or volunteer in an official capacity and/or will it utilize OSU property, resources or brand? ➤ If No, then registration is not required.
3. Will any university employee or volunteer have responsibility for direct supervision of minors? ➤ If Yes, then a roster of OSU-authorized youth program personnel must be uploaded.
4. Is there a contract or facility use agreement in place between OSU and a non-university entity or individual using OSU property for this youth activity? ➤ If Yes, then a contract/agreement & certificate of insurance (COI) must be uploaded.
